Qualified expenses include tuition, fees, the cost of books, supplies and equipment required for enrollment. Non-qualified withdrawals are taxable as ordinary income to the extent of earnings and may also be subject to a 10% federal income tax penalty. Such withdrawals may have state income tax implications.

CHET Advisor is administered by the Treasurer of the State of Connecticut as the Trustee of the Connecticut Higher Education Trust Program.

CHET Advisor is only available to residents of Connecticut.

Investments in CHET Advisor are not guaranteed or insured by the State of Connecticut, the Connecticut Higher Education Trust Program, the Connecticut State Treasurer's Office, Hartford Life Insurance Company, The Hartford Financial Services Group, Inc., the investment sub-advisors for the Underlying Funds or any depository institution and are subject to investment risks, including the loss of the principal amount invested, and may not be appropriate for all investors.

Connecticut provides its residents with tax advantages for investing in CHET Advisor. Before investing in a 529 plan, you should consider whether the state you or your designated beneficiary reside in or have taxable income in has a 529 plan that offers favorable state income tax or other benefits that are only available if you invest in that state's 529 plan.

You should carefully consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses of CHET Advisor and its Underlying Funds before investing. This and other information can be found in the Offering Statement for CHET Advisor and the prospectuses or other disclosure documents for the Underlying Funds, which can be obtained in the College Savings pages of www.HartfordInvestor.com or by calling 866-574-3542. Please read them carefully before you invest or send money. CHET Advisor is distributed by Hartford Securities Distribution Company, Inc. Member SIPC.
