Rockville Bank's New Enfield Location Invites Public To Ribbon-Cutting Celebration on Tuesday, March 13

Rockville, Conn., March 6, 2007 – A Ribbon-Cutting Celebration for Rockville Bank's new Enfield branch will take place on Tuesday, March 13 at 10 a.m. The free event will be held inside The Bank's new full-service office at 660 Enfield Street, in the building formerly occupied by Enfield Federal Savings & Loan.

The Enfield office will be the 19th branch for Rockville Bank, and will join its three other Enfield locations: at 231 Hazard Avenue; inside the Big Y World Class Supermarket at 65 Palomba Drive; and a Drive-Up ATM machine at Scitico Plaza. The new full-service branch will include four teller counter stations, two drive-up teller windows and a drive-up and walk-up automatic teller machine (ATMs), and customer convenience items such as a coin counting machine, document shredder, and two flat-panel LCD screens which will provide customers with news, weather, sports and business information. The branch also will feature a refreshment center, offering complimentary beverages and cookies.

"We are proud to have had a presence in Enfield for more than a decade and are adding a new branch office to accommodate our growing family of customers," explains William J. McGurk, President and Chief Executive Officer of Rockville Bank. "We look forward to opening our doors and providing a wide variety of banking services for the convenience of customers who live and work in town and nearby."

The special 10 a.m. Community Grand Opening will feature the ceremonial cutting of a ribbon of genuine $1 bills, and the presentation of $10,000 in contributions to the Enfield community. Rockville Bank will present a check for $5,000 to the North Central Community Transportation Network, and $1,000 each to the Asnuntuck Community College Foundation, the Enfield Fire Chiefs Association, the Enfield Public Library, the Enfield Senior Center, and the Enfield Police Canine Fund to protect the officers.

The event also will include thank you gifts, door prizes, and refreshments and will be followed by future celebrations that will include additional gifts and prizes. Everyone is invited and no reservations are necessary.

With the opening of its newest Enfield office, Rockville Bank is a 19-branch community bank serving Tolland and Hartford counties in Connecticut. It provides a convenient banking lifestyle for Coventry, East Hartford, East Windsor, Ellington, Enfield, Glastonbury, Manchester, Rockville, Somers, South Glastonbury, South Windsor, Suffield, Vernon, seven days a week in Tolland, and four Big Y supermarket locations. A new full-service office will open in East Windsor this spring. For more information about Rockville Bank's services and products, call (860) 291-3600 or visit www.rockvillebank.com
