FREE APRIL 24 HOMEBUYERS SEMINAR TO HELP PEOPLE FIND THE MORTGAGE THAT'S RIGHT FOR THEM!

ROCKVILLE, CONN., April 16, 2007 – Anyone considering purchasing a home has likely discovered that there is a growing array of mortgages and loans available. But how do buyers know which one is the best for their own needs?

A wide range of information and options will be presented in a free Homebuyers Seminar on Tuesday, April 24 from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at the Lafayette Branch of Rockville Bank on 20 Hyde Ave. (Rt. 20) in Vernon, Conn.

Attendees will learn about a variety of mortgage programs, construction loans, and even First Time Homebuyer loans. Rockville Bank Loan Specialists will explain the legal and appraisal processes. Branch Manager Mary Brunelle will be available to prequalify any interested individuals or families for a home mortgage.

“Everyone is invited to come to this free program that will answer the most common questions that homebuyers ask us,” explained William J. McGurk, President and CEO of Rockville Bank. “We hope that many people come and take advantage of this easy-to-understand event.”

Space is limited for this free April 24 seminar at Rockville Bank's Lafayette Branch in Vernon. To reserve a seat, call Branch Manager Mary Brunelle at (860) 291-3830 or e-mail her at mbrunelle@rockvillebank.com.
