ELVIS RETURNS TO BROAD BROOK OPERA HOUSE

Celebrate the holidays with "A-Ray of Elvis Christmas Show" at the Broad Brook Opera House, 107 Main Street, Broad Brook on Saturday, December 10 at 8pm and Sunday, December 11 at 2pm. Ray Guillemette, Jr. is one of today's premier Elvis Tribute Artists. Let this 10-time, International, 1st place Elvis Presley impersonator rock your world with his striking look, outstanding vocal range and unabashed excitement as he sings Elvis' Christmas and holiday favorites.

All tickets are $20 (reserved seating) and will benefit the Opera House Players, a non-profit community theater group that presents at least four major Broadway-style musicals each year. Last year this show sold out, so order tickets now by calling the box office at 860-292-6068 or purchase online at www.operahouseplayers.org. Learn more about A-Ray of Elvis at www.bionichelvis.com.

The Opera House Players' 2011-2012 season will conclude with CHICAGO in February and LA CAGE AUX FOLLES in May. The historic Broad Brook Opera House is an intimate venue with seating for 170. Our gift certificates make special holiday gifts - call the box office to order yours today!
